

Skill Development and Support to Technical Education

Activities

- Training Workshops for sponsored candidate technicians / graduates in areas identified by the industries.
- Short courses: SIATI conducts short courses to impart knowledge and skills (technical and managerial)
- International Institute of Aerospace Engineering and Management (IIAEM) : SIATI with the support from major aerospace companies formed IIAEM under Jain University in Bangalore for quality education and catering for the requirements of industry.
- Encouraging and supporting Colleges and technical training institutes for improving infrastructure, faculty and educational standards/ curricule through interaction with user industries, regulatory agencies such as CEMILAC, DGCA etc.
- Arrange apprentice ship in industries for graduates and technicians.
- Collaboration between Indian and Overseas Universities, technical training / certification agencies.
- Aerospace Sectoral Skill Council (SSC) : SIATI has associated with BCIC in forming an aerospace sectoral skill council in Bangalore under the National Skill Development Corporation.
- Quality improvements in AME training – Based on the national seminar on the subject, SIATI suggested improvements to the AME Schools and course curricula
- Stipend to encourage studies – SIATI introduced stipend for selected AME certificate holders and associate member graduate of aeronautical society for industrial training.
- SIATI has instituted scholarship for the graduate students of IIAEM.

Students attending short courses

Students and Faculties short course on Integrated Material Management

Students attending short courses